THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE N.V. RAMANA

W.P. No. 10018 of 2006

Oral order:

The petitioner claims that she was temporarily appointed as Anganwadi Aya in respect of Ajjilapur Tanda in the month of November, 2003 on a monthly payment of Rs.50/-, and she is working as such till date. While so, the petitioner states that the respondents sanctioned a regular post of Anganwadi Aya with a pay of Rs.800/- per month. The petitioner states that she made representation dated 24.04.2006 to the respondents to regularize her services in the said regular post, and it is the grievance of the petitioner that the respondents without considering her request for regularization, under the influence of local politicians, appointed some other person, who is not qualified. Hence, she filed the present writ petition.

On 24.05.2006, this Court while ordering notice before admission, granted interim directions directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for regularization of her services. The respondents despite receiving notice, have not filed any counter, and there is no representation on their behalf.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and having regard to the fact that the representation dated 24.04.2006, said to have been made by the petitioner seeking regularization of her services is still pending consideration with the respondents, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with the following directions:

The respondents are directed to consider and dispose of the representation dated 24.04.2006 and pass appropriate orders thereon, if not already passed, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.

N.V. RAMANA, J.
